(e) whether a large number of such letters have also been received in Prime Minister's Office from MPs during first quarter of 1994;

(f) if so, the details of such letters received in each month of 1994;

(g) whether a large number of such letters have been forwarded to other Ministries as these related to those offices;

(h) whether a large number of such references have not been finalised so far; and

(i) if so, the details of such references, Ministry and Office-wise separately, for 1993 and 1994, with reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE (SHRI BHUVNESH CHATURVEDI): (a) to (i) The Prime Minister has received 9238 letters from the Members of Parliament during the year 1993 and 2344 letters during the period from 1.1.94 to 31.3.94. The month wise figures are indicated below:

1993 :

Jan	—	630.	Feb	—	649,	March	—	910,	April	—	853
May	—	789.	June	—	680,	July	—	563,	Aug.	—	1196
Sept.	—	782.	Oct.	—	731,	Nov.	—	470,	Dec.	—	985

1994 :

Jan.	—	724,	Feb.	—	682,	March	—	938

The letters received by the Prime Minister from the Members of Parliament are of different categories. Action on most of the letters is to be taken by the concerned Ministries/Departments of the Central Government and the State Governments as the case may be. There are some letters which are of such a nature on which either no specific action is required or on which action is to be taken in the Prime Minister's Office. Such letters on which action is to be taken by the Ministries/Departments of the Central Government or the State Governments are forwarded to them for considering the issues raised in the letters and sending appropriate replies to the Members of Parliament. Ministry-wise and Office-wise details of such references as well as details of cases that have been finalised are not being maintained in the Prime Minister's Office. It is primarily the responsibility of the concerned Ministries/Departments or the State Governments, as the case may be, to take action on these letters and send appropriate replies to the Members of Parliament.
